NOTICE.

Having taken the management of that large and well known HOUSE in Pendleton Village, formerly occupied by Mr. Hubbard, is now ready for the reception of company.

His House has undergone important and very advantageous improvements, both in regard to the accommodation of families and individual boarders. He has an experienced House and Bar Keeper. His Rooms have been enlarged, and are well furnished. His Stables also have been enlarged, and the best Hostlers in attendance.

The well known healthiness of the place, the excellent society of the village and neighborhood, and its location within a few miles of some of the finest scenery in the Southern country, afford many and strong inducements to persons visiting the back country, either for health or pleasure, to stop for a time in our village.

Persons calling on him may expect the best accommodations the country can afford. A. H. REESE.

TO PLANTERS.—The Subscribers offer for sale about 16,000 ACRES OF LAND, situated in the Fork of the Alabama and Tombeckbee Rivers, having a front on the latter of twelve miles, and on the former of about half a mile.

These Lands offer a very [illegible] inducement to large Planters, who may be disposed to emigrate into Alabama. They are situated only about 50 miles from the City of Mobile, are high Cane Brake Lands, and of the most approved description for the culture of Cotton. Contiguous to them are several high, healthy situations for Summer Residences, with numerous Springs of the purest Water. About 500 acres are now cleared, and have been several years under Cotton culture, the remainder is well wooded with Poplar, Linn, Ash and Hickory.

The convenience of the above Lands to the thriving City of Mobile, by two fine rivers, navigable at all seasons of the year, by steam boats, renders them a very desirable object to Planters or others who are disposed to invest on them.

Terms, &c., can be ascertained on application to the Subscribers, at Mobile. M'LOSKEY, HAGAN & CO.
