El Paso Times, Thursday Morning, July 2, 1896.

Fourth of July Celebration!

Our Declaration of Independence

Thursday and Friday, July 2d & 3d,
we will sell goods independent of former prices.

Make Your Dollar Count!

Light colored Lava, Galluses and Chinilles at All our Fine Domestic Dress Goods at

$3.00 Ladies' Silk dresses, black or tan, at $3.00.
All our Domestic Damasks and Damuzins at $3.00.
All our best colored Damuzins at $3.00.

32 inch White Damuzins at $1.00.

32 inch White Cotton Damuzins, black or tan, at $1.00.
32 inch White Chinilles, black or tan, at $1.00.

$2.00 Ladies' Damask dresses, black or tan, at $2.00.
$2.50 Ladies' Damask dresses, black or tan, at $2.50.

All our remaining Silk Wash Goods at

Exactly One-Half Price

SHOE DEPARTMENT.
Our $1.00 Ladies' Oxford, black or tan, at $0.50.
The $1.00 Ladies' Oxford, black or tan, at $0.50.
The $2.00 Ladies' Oxford, black or tan, at $1.00.
The $3.00 Ladies' Oxford, black or tan, at $1.50.

All our Children's Shoes reduced for this sale.

A discount of one-half price will be given on all goods not advertised. Goods marked in plain figures.

NET CASH ONLY.

H. KAYSER & CO.
Corner Oregon and Texas streets, next to Postoffice.

The Gold Men

They will Master & Formally Anoint Distinquished Men.

MANSUREN DEFEAT.

EXTRA ITEMS.

Treasury Statement.

Treasurer, July 1.—The comparative liquidation of the United States treasury at Washington, July 1. This table shows the total amount of the public debt and the number of creditors from whom they have been paid. The percentage of the public debt remaining unpaid is also shown.

Individuals, July 1.—The comparative liquidation of the United States treasury at Washington, July 1. This table shows the total amount of the public debt and the number of creditors from whom they have been paid. The percentage of the public debt remaining unpaid is also shown.

Theodore Roosevelt, July 1.—The comparative liquidation of the United States treasury at Washington, July 1. This table shows the total amount of the public debt and the number of creditors from whom they have been paid. The percentage of the public debt remaining unpaid is also shown.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

M. F. Price, Manufacturer.

NEWSEUM Collection