ABRAHAM LINCOLN

American Revolutionary, the Republican candidate for President. Lincoln was born in a log cabin in Indiana in 1809 and died in 1865.

Lincoln was elected President in 1860 and served two terms. He was assassinated in 1865.

STEVEN A. DOUGLAS

Senator from Illinois, the Democratic candidate for President. Douglas was born in Kentucky in 1813 and died in 1861.

Douglas was considered a key figure in the political debates of the time, particularly in the areas of slavery and states' rights.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE

Senator from Kentucky, the Democratic candidate for Vice President. Breckinridge was born in Kentucky in 1821 and died in 1875.

Breckinridge was a key figure in the political debates of the time, particularly in the areas of slavery and states' rights.

PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER—Supplement.

PHILADELPHIA, JUN 28, 1860.