

Numb. 123

(1079)

The pursuit of the Kings forces continued by Col. General Poyntz, eleven Knights and Colonels, eleven Lieut. Colonels, six Majors, twenty seven Captaines, fourteen Lieutenants, seven Cornets, five Quarter-masters, taken. 800 slain, 1500 prisoners, and 2000 horse taken. Sr Thomas Fairfax advanced with 9000 horse and foot toward Exeter, Lieutenant General Cromwell entering Winchester, and besieging the Castle. A Bill of all such as have been buried of the plague in Bristol the last weeke.

Mercurius Civicus.
LONDONS
INTELLIGENCER

OR,

Truth impartially related from thence to the whole Kingdome, to prevent mis-information.

From Thursday Septemb. 25. to Wednesday Octob. 1. 1645.

He successe obtained by the victorious Colonel Gen. Poyntz against his Majesties forces neere Chester on Wednesday last, as it deserves perpetuall commemoration to all posterity, so it requires the first place in this our intelligence. The issue of that battell hath made frustrate all his Majesties expectations, or recruiting of his forces, or gathering together any

Gggggg

con: