UNITED!

Completion of the Chain Binding the East and the West Together.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD FINISHED.

Governesses Attending the Laying of the Last Rail on the Road.

THE COUNTRY JUBILANT.

Interludes of Congratulations Between the Metropolises of the East and That of the West.

CELEBRATION IN NEW YORK CITY.

In this city the completion of the Pacific Railroad was celebrated with much enthusiasm and festivity. The anniversary was observed with appropriate ceremonies, including a grand parade, a speech by a prominent orator, and a fireworks display.

HISTORY OF THE ROAD.

The construction of the Pacific Railroad was a monumental achievement of engineering and determination. It connected the eastern and western coasts of the United States, facilitating trade and travel between the two regions.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 18.

The annual meeting of the House of Representatives was held today, with representatives from all parts of the United States gathered to discuss national issues.

THE EUROPEAN LETTERS.

The British government has declared its intention to negotiate a trade agreement with the United States, aiming to boost economic relations between the two countries.

THE CANAL APPROPRIATIONS.

Washington, May 16.

The bill for canal appropriations has been introduced in Congress, with provisions for funding the construction of new waterways and improvements to existing ones.

CUBA.

Fighting continues to escalate on the island. The Cuban government has announced new measures to protect its citizens from the ongoing conflict.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Tallahassee, May 15.

The state legislature has convened for its annual session, with debates on various proposed bills and legislation.

NEWSEUM
Newsom Collection