How to use the Passport

1. Go to <http://www.newseum.org/todaysfrontpages/> to complete this World Reporter Passport.
2. You do not have to do the assignments in any particular order - start wherever you want.
3. However, you can only use each front page once so choose your sources wisely.
4. Have your teacher, parent or chaperone review your work when you finish a page. If they are satisfied, ask them to initial the visa stamp box at the top of each page.
5. Once you have completed all the activity pages and collected the visa for each one, give the passport to your teacher who will sign the World Reporter Passport certificate to show that you have completed the entire activity!

The World Reporter Passport is produced by the World Association of Newspapers and News Publishers (WAN-IFRA) and NewseumED. All rights reserved.

Something for Everyone to Read

Reporters need to know what their audience wants to learn more about. Look at the articles on the front pages. Think of someone else visiting the Newseum with you today. See if you can find an article that would interest them.

Their name _____

Newspaper name _____

Article headline (title) _____

Why did you choose this article? List two reasons why it would interest your companion.

Show the article to the person. Did they like it? Why or why not?

Feelings from the News

Look at the front pages. Write down a headline or describe a picture that makes you feel:

Happy _____

Sad _____

Proud _____

Surprised _____

Choose an article that made you feel a different emotion from the ones listed above?

Headline _____
Made me feel _____

Asking Good Questions

Reporters ask a lot of questions to gather information to write a story. Find someone mentioned in a front page story. Imagine that you are able to ask them one question.

I want to ask _____ a question.
(name)

Newspaper name _____

Headline _____

Person's title, if known _____

I want to ask this question:

I want to ask this question because
