RIVAL SUFFRAGE BODIES PLAN TWO MOVES ON G. O. P.

Congressional Union Deems Approval of Susan B. Anthony Amendment.

NATIONAL SOCIETY OPPOSES PLANK

Twenty Thousand Women Are Expected to March in Chicago Parade To-Day.

Chicago, June 6. - Real excitement was generated throughout Chicago this morning in anticipation of the Congressional Union's demonstration, which starts at 2 o'clock in Grant Park today. Large bands and Orchestras will play on the avenue, and under the direction of editorial and other members of the Women's National Teachers Association, this demonstration will rival in size the demonstration of forty thousand women which took place in Washington June 2nd.

BARBER'S LIES COST MEET $2,741

Porchio Admits He Gave False Testimony in Oppenheim Suit.

Joseph Porchio, a witness who is called up before the Senate Committee on House Appropriation, was to-day questioned by Charles H. Nuckolls, assistant counsel, about a letter which he had written to the president of the Federal Trade Commission after he had been accused of having given false testimony to that commission about the so-called "opposition" that had been established by the commission.

WIFE A WITNESS, LYMAN IN TEARS

Weeps Over Message of Love as Woman Tries to Help Him.

British Attache Sailed Prisoner.

British Consul Henry H. L. Lyman has succeeded in obtaining a message for his brother, Capt. J. H. Lyman, of the British warship "E. O. W.", from his American seaman brother, J. H. Lyman, to the British government. The message was delivered to Capt. Lyman by Capt. W. H. Lyman, of the British warship "E. O. W.", at the British Consulate in New York.

BILLY MORE YEARS.

WILL COST YOU ONLY $19 PER SET.

The sale at present prices of the

Encyclopaedia Britannica

The "Handy Volume" Issue of the

Encyclopaedia Britannica

The sale of the "Handy Volume" Issue of the Encyclopaedia Britannica is being advertised for June 17th only.

NEARING THE END

If there had been no war

—If the shortage is due to the increase in the production of consumer goods, and the decrease in the production of military goods.

—If there had been no war, the cost of living would have been less than half what it is now.

THE TEMPLE OF THE SONS OF HERAKLES

The Temple of the Sons of Herakles, which was built on the west side of the Acropolis, in Athens, has been preserved in a perfect state of preservation. It is a large, rectangular building, erected on the site of the ancient temple of Hera, and is said to have been dedicated to the goddess by the people of Athens in the year 451 B.C. The temple was destroyed by fire in the year 421 B.C., but was rebuilt in the year 412 B.C., and is now in a perfect state of preservation.

4,000 CHILDREN SEE COURT

(Christian Dyer, a boy aged 14, has been sentenced to the reformatory for life at the age of 14, for an attempt to rob a man in a street near this city. He was sentenced to the reformatory for life at the age of 14, and is said to have been the only person ever convicted of a capital crime in this country.

MANY DIVIDENDS ARE INCREASED

Kaiserman Distribution Railway is Six Per Cent. — Sugar Beet.

The Directors of the Kaiserman Distribution Railway have increased the dividend on the common stock from one per cent to six per cent, effective June 1st, 1918. This is in response to the increased demand for sugar beets in this country, due to the decreased production of sugar in foreign countries.