THE LATE SOJOURNER TRUTH.

SOUTHERN TRUTH, one of the notables of the Southern whites, was born in 1822, in Kentucky. She was married, and had twelve children. At the age of fifty she moved to Kansas, where she became a leading voice in the abolition movement. She was a staunch supporter of the Underground Railroad and helped many slaves escape to freedom. She was frequently arrested and imprisoned for her activities. She died in 1896, and is remembered as a hero of the anti-slavery movement.

THE EMPEROR OF CHINA AT HOME.

The last word in luxury and comfort is now available in the homes of the Chinese emperors. The palace of Their Imperial Majesties, the Emperor and Empress, is a magnificent structure, built of solid gold and silver, with walls and ceilings of jeweled mirrors. The furniture is of the finest quality, and the gardens are replete with exotic flowers and plants. The empress is said to have her own personal garden, where she grows her own food. The emperors are said to be very strict in their dietary, and only eat what they consider to be the finest quality.

HOW RUSSIAN TROOPS TRAVERSE RIVERS.

One of the most recent innovations in Russian military strategy is the use of inflatable rafts to cross rivers. These rafts are made of a special rubber-like material and are inflated with air. They can carry large vehicles and troops across rivers without destroying the bridge structure. This has allowed the Russian army to move more quickly and effectively in areas where bridges are not available. The use of these rafts has also reduced the amount of time and resources needed to construct temporary bridges.

A PANAMA INDIAN VILLAGE.

The Panama Indians, who live in the region of Panama, are known for their unique culture and way of life. They are closely related to the Chiriqui Indians and are known for their intricate weaving techniques. The Panama Indians are also known for their agricultural practices, which include the cultivation of corn, beans, and yams. They are usually found in small villages, where they live in close proximity to each other. The Panama Indians are known for their hospitality and are always willing to welcome visitors into their homes.