

Name:
Date:

'What's News?' Viewing Guide

As you watch "What's News?" answer the following questions.

1. What are some categories of events that can be considered news?

---

---

2. What makes a story newsworthy?

---

---

---

3. While you are watching the movie, identify four or five stories or people that you recognize. Why do you think these stories are considered news?

---

---

---

---

4. What are some of the different ways in which news can be delivered?

---

---

---

Name:
Date:

After your watch the video, answer the following questions.

1. In your own words, answer the question – What is news?

---

2. This video lists nine categories for types of stories that are considered news. Name three of these categories and explain what types of stories each one describes.

---

---

---

3. Name two other categories that you would add to the list that you consider news. Explain why.

---

---

4. Were there events in this video that you recognize? List two of the stories and why you think they were important.

---

---

5. What other events from history would you add to this video? List three events, and for each one, explain why you chose it.

---

---

6. What would life be like without the news? How would you learn about what is going on in the world around you?

---