ROOSEVELT SHOT BY SOCIALIST IN MILWAUKEE!
WOUND IS NOT SERIOUS; HIS ASSAILANT ARRESTED

Twelve Thousand Persons Packed Into Great Auditorium in Milwaukee for Colonel in Wild Enthusiasm as Candidate with Grim Determination Begins His Speech — No Such Demonstration Ever Witnessed by Any Person Present.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 14—Colonel Roosevelt’s appearance in the auditorium tonight caused a demonstration the like of which has not been known perhaps in history. His face was fixed with a determination that made every heart thrill with his speech. Then he turned and spoke to his friends. There were trills of cheers in his voice. He seemed not to be a man, but to be the embodiment of the lives of all who had been with him. The audience was filled with the wonder of his speech. They clapped as he spoke. The day had promised to be the finest of the present day. It wound up in a series of excitement and a demonstration that seemed like the spasm of the day.

There were 25,000 persons inside and outside of the great hall when the car appeared in sight. The car was seen by many as it passed the scenes. The health of the colonel was not discussed. Everyone accepted it as a fact that the colonel could not have been injured, but when he did not say, the crowd seemed to know. They could not believe their eyes. Then a realization of the man’s determination swept over them, and from the thousands of cheers went up a cheer that would have overwhelmed a thunderclap.

MRS. ROOSEVELT, IN THEATRE, TOLD NEWS

Rushes to Where She May Hear from Her Husband.

Mrs. Roosevelt was called by the stage manager of the Coliseum Theatre after the shooting. He told her that there had been a shooting and that her husband had been shot. In the theater, when she heard of the shooting, Philip Morris and Mrs. Roosevelt were removed. Through a window in the upper part of the theater the colonel was shot. Mrs. Roosevelt was shot and Philip Morris was wounded. The colonel was carried to the cashier and then to the door, where he was carried to the car. Mrs. Roosevelt, who was with the colonel, was not injured.

Colonel Defects in Letter

Colonel Roosevelt, in a letter, said that he was in the car and that he had received a letter from the colonel. The colonel was reported to be in the car, where he was shot. The colonel was shot by a man who was with him in the car. The colonel was reported to be in the car, where he was shot.

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF COLONEL ROOSEVELT

SOCIALIST CALLING HIMSELF JOHN SCHRANK OF NEW YORK CITY FACES AT THE FORMER PREORAND AND BULLET PLOWED THROUGH ARM COAT, MANUSCRIPT OF SPEECH, VEST, SHIRT AND UNDERCLOTHES, ENTERING THE BODY BELOW NIPPLE OF RIGHT BREAST.

PHYSICIANS SAY THE WOUND IS NOT IN A VITAL SPOT

Colonel with his wound covering his clothing with blood insisted upon speaking in the auditorium for more than an hour. The colonel was reported to be in the car, where he was shot.

The wound did not bleed profusely. The colonel’s shirt was torn and his head and coat were torn. He was said to be in a room in the car, where he was shot.

The colonel was reported to be in the car, where he was shot.

TAFT EXPRESSES REGRET AT SHOOTING OF ROOSEVELT

President Hearns News When at Naval Banquet in Hotel Astor—First Did Not Know Exact Nature of Colonel’s Wound

President Taft, hearing news of the shooting, was at a naval banquet in the Hotel Astor. He said that he did not know the exact nature of the wound, but said he would arrive in Gary.